Hole load of Money FORE Magpas!

The members of St Ives Golf Club have given Magpas' lifesavers a huge boost with a donation of more than £4,500!

Last Year's Mens and Ladies Captains, Alan Goodfellow and Cathie Briggs presented Magpas Fundraiser, Debbie Florence with a cheque recently following a year of fundraising for the charity.

Debbie Florence said, “We are very grateful to Alan, Cathie and everyone at the club for choosing us and for working so hard to raise these vital funds. Money raised for Magpas really does help save lives locally so their fantastic support will make a real difference.”

Alan Goodfellow said, “Magpas is a wonderful charity and we are happy to help them. There is a Magpas Community First Responder Group in St Ives and our Emergency Medical Team is based only a few miles away at RAF Wyton.

Magpas was the chosen charity in 2008 and the money was raised at the Captain's Charity Day, Wimbleidleydon, Captains Day raffle and people's generosity throughout the year.
