Marshalls Play their Parts!

Marshalls Parts have donated more than £800 to Magpas, the Emergency Medical Charity.

Staff from Marshalls Parts presenting the cheque to Christian Morris from Magpas.

The team at the centre on Newmarket Road, raised the money by holding a raffle. Everyone brought in their own prizes and then they sold the tickets to staff and customers.

Receiving the cheque, Christian Morris said, "It is very good of everyone at Marshalls Parts to support us in this way. Every year they raise funds for the charity and nearly £800 is a fantastic amount."

More follows...

Tony Pepper of Marshalls Parts said, “Everyone here is really keen to support Magpas. You never know when you might need them to come and save you so it is important everyone tries to support them when they can.”
